Cancer Society Charity Ball*

Thank you to all our event supporters

We are absolutely thrilled by the incredible support we received from numerous businesses and individuals at The Cooper Group Cancer Society Nelson Tasman Charity Ball. Your generosity, whether through auction items, event support, or other contributions, played an instrumental role in making this event an overwhelming success.

We want to extend a heartfelt thank you to all the supporters and donors who joined us at the event with over 200 people attending the event. Your unwavering commitment to the spirit of giving, resulted in an astounding fundraising total of $103,000. This remarkable sum will undoubtedly have a significant impact on those affected by cancer and their loved ones.

We extend our deepest gratitude to Debbie Cooper and The Cooper Group for their invaluable support as the naming rights sponsor and as our most passionate advocate for this event. And a big shout out to Debbie for doing a stellar job as auctioneer on the night.

Once again, thank you to all the supporters, donors, businesses, individuals, and volunteers who made The Cooper Group Cancer Society Nelson Tasman Charity Ball an unforgettable success. Your kindness and generosity have made a lasting impact on the lives of those affected by cancer, and we are truly grateful for your unwavering support.

Special thank you!

To The Cooper Group for their support as naming sponsor of this event.

LIVE AUCTIONS

The highlight of the evening were our Live Auctions, made possible by the incredibly generous contributions from numerous businesses and individuals.

We had 21 Live Auction lot items on the night.

We would like to give special recognition to the last auction item of the night, a gracious donation by the internationally acclaimed artist Maico Camilo, which fetched an impressive $20,000! This remarkable outcome truly reflects the high regard in which Maico's artwork is held.

We were astounded not only by this exceptional bid but also by the many other remarkable offers we received for the Live Auction items.

Thank you to these businesses and individuals for donating items for the Live Auctions.

VOLUNTEERS

We also want to express our sincere appreciation to the countless volunteers who dedicated their time and energy throughout the event—assisting with preparations, setting up, and helping during and after the ball. Without their selfless efforts, monumental events like this would simply not be possible!

Thank you

At Cancer Society Nelson Tasman, we rely on the generosity of our community to fund our activities. Donations, along with other forms of support such as bequests, fundraising events, and voluntary efforts, allow us to provide vital services such as support groups, counselling, grocery and petrol vouchers, rehabilitation gym, and yoga programmes.

It is heartening to know that our small team supports around 500 individuals and their whānau in the Nelson Tasman region with cancer every year. By supporting us, you are helping us to continue doing our best to support those who are affected by cancer.
